

Paolo Carbone started playing in Paris, France, and by age twelve was recruited by the youth program of Paris Saint Germain, one of the most successful soccer clubs in Europe. At seventeen, he began practicing with the professional team A.S. Beauvais Marissel. A year later, Paolo moved to Italy, where he played for eight years in the Italian minor leagues. After coming to the U.S., Paolo played for several professional teams including the Monterey Bay Jaguars, and most recently the PDSL, Silicon Valley Ambassadors. Besides being both the Men's and Women's Head Coach at Cabrillo, Paolo is a well-known coach and trainer in Santa Cruz and the Bay area. He is the head coaching director for both the boys and girls Santa Cruz Breakers club, and is currently working with the U18 girls' Breakers team. Paolo currently holds a USSF "B" license.
