Cabrillo College Culinary Arts Program Announces ‘Jazz and Juice’
Wednesday, October 20, 5:30 p.m. – The Sesnon House, Aptos Campus

APTOS, CA— Cabrillo College’s Culinary Arts program and Surf City Vintners announce another unique culinary event, this time also featuring acclaimed local jazz duet NoNette.

On Wednesday, October 20th diners are invited to Cabrillo College’s Pino Alto restaurant to celebrate the fall grape harvest. The advanced culinary class will be pairing six different Italian-themed courses with six different Surf City Vintner wines. Diners will have an opportunity to taste the “juice” from this year’s press with its corresponding wine and food. The winemakers will also be present to describe the varietals and discuss the year’s wine harvest.

Hors d’oeuvres will be served from 5:30 – 6:15 p.m. Dinner will be served family style on the back terrace and will start promptly at 6:30 p.m. The event will feature live jazz music by local duet NoNette, both prior to and throughout dinner.

Cost is $65 per person. Seats are limited to 30 people. To make reservations, call 831-479-6524. Information about the restaurant can be found at www.pinoaltorestaurant.org.
