Cabrillo College Theatre Arts Presents: Noises Off by Michael Frayn
Show Opens November 4th and Runs Weekends Through November 19

APTOS, CA – The Cabrillo College Theatre Arts Department presents its fall semester performance of Michael Frayn’s Noises Off, a famously funny farce about a second-rate British touring theatre troupe rehearsing and performing a sex farce called “Nothing On.” Performances begin Friday, November 4th at 7:30 p.m. and run weekends through Saturday November 19th.

Cabrillo’s Theatre Arts performance of Noises Off is directed by Robin Aronson, with set design by Skip Epperson, costume design by Maria Crush, lighting design by Caleb Wildman and prop design by Donald Grube.

Noises Off is a hilarious ‘play about a play,’ full of wildly comic characters and zany mishaps that spin dizzily out of control into a total fiasco. The action takes place both onstage and backstage, and is a madcap riot of missed cues, jealous lovers and slippery sardines. Noises Off has been bringing joy and laughter to audiences worldwide since 1982.
