 MEDIA ALERT *****

Cabrillo College Selected by National Institutes of Health to Host All of Us Research Program
Traveling Exhibit at Cabrillo College Aptos Campus Thursday, February 1, 2:00 – 6:00 p.m., Parking Lot R

APTOS, CA—Cabrillo College today announces that Cabrillo has been chosen by the National Institutes of Health (NIH) to participate in the All of Us Research Program. Through a 37-week national tour, this traveling exhibit actively engages community members to join a historic research project that will accelerate research and improve health. The All of Us van will be at the Cabrillo College Aptos campus on Thursday, February 1 from 2:00 - 6:00p.m. in Parking Lot R (near the stadium). Students and community members who sign up to participate in a 10-year longitudinal study will receive a $25 gift card.

The All of Us Research Program funded by the NIH benefits people, families, communities, and future generations by helping to ensure that Santa Cruz County is included as the NIH works to improve the health of all Americans through more effective and tailored prevention strategies and treatments for diseases. It provides an opportunity for Cabrillo students and Santa Cruz County community members to actively participate in a program that seeks to improve the health of all Americans regardless of their sex, gender, race/ethnicity, religion, insurance status, address, income, or other unique traits.

- WHAT: The All of Us Research Program, sponsored by the National Institutes of Health (NIH)
