RIGHTS OF ACCESS: Under Section 49061 of the Education Code, parents of community college students do not have a right of access to their children's student records, regardless of whether the student is under the age of 18. Also, under federal law Section 1232g of Title 20 of the United States Code), there is a general right of parental access to student records, but not for college students, regardless of age. In accordance with this regulation, a student's college record (including their Cabrillo transcript) will be released to the parents only with the written consent of the minor student.

It is imperative that parents and their minor children understand that, as a Cabrillo student, they are entering a college environment which carries with it certain possible situations, which cannot always be anticipated. The atmosphere of classes reflects a diverse adult student population.

The list below is not meant to create undue concern for parents or the minor students, but only to serve as an advisory so that the minor will have a positive educational experience here at Cabrillo College.

POSSIBLE SITUATIONS:

- All college coursework and grades earned become a permanent part of the student's official college academic history and transcript.
 - Poor grades can affect a student's academic future in such areas as admission to college/universities, eligibility for financial aid, etc.
 - Students must adhere to Cabrillo College's Student Code of Conduct. All disciplinary incidents become a part of the student's personal history.
 - Students are expected to meet all College deadlines such as dropping by established deadlines, as well as submitting class assignments on time, etc.
 - Attendance is required. No one will call if the minor student misses class. It is important for students to adhere to Cabrillo College's Attendance Policy.
 - Students may be exposed to adult language outside of the classroom.
- Poor grades can affect a student's academic future in such areas as admission to college/universities, eligibility for financial aid, etc.
 - Instructors cannot inform parents when classes are canceled at the last minute or when the class ends prior to the appointed time. Instructors are not obligated to sit with a child while he/she waits to be picked up.
 - Courses may include frank discussion of sensitive topics and audio-visual presentations may be graphic in the content and/or language.
 - Group work, field trips, and/or class presentations may be expected in the class. If required, these activities and assignments will not be modified to accommodate minors.
 - Students may have access to brochures such as pregnancy, HIV, sexual harassment, alcohol and drug use. Condoms in vending machines are also available in some male and female restrooms on campus.

I certify that I have read the "K-12 Minor Students Statement of Understanding" and release the student to attend Cabrillo College as a college student for the semester listed above.

POLICY & GUIDELINES

New Concurrent Enrollment Policy:

- Students whose age or class level is equal to grades 9-12 may attend Cabrillo College as a special part-time student, a special full-time student or a special summer session student for advanced scholastic or vocational courses in accordance with the following procedures. Concurrent Enrollment Students may NOT enroll in 200 level courses, or any basic skills/pre-collegiate courses.
- Students enrolled in K-8 grade districts may attend Cabrillo College for advanced scholastic courses, but only as part-time students. Those courses that are designed for students at that specific grade and age level (academic camps for young students' children's theater, etc.)
- Student's wanting to enroll in a Math or English course, must take the Assessment Test.
- Course prerequisites must be met prior to registering.

Student Responsibilities:

- You must register for approved classes listed on the front of your Concurrent Enrollment form only. Registering for non-approved classes may result in coursework not being accepted at your high school.
- Concurrent students shall conform to the College's academic rules and regulations and the code of conduct expected of all college students.
- You are responsible for reviewing and abiding by all academic policies as listed in the Schedule of Classes and College Catalog.
- If you are enrolled in more than 11 units, you are responsible for all fees associated with those courses.
- You are expected to meet all College deadlines such as dropping by established deadlines, as well as submitting any class assignments on time.
- Attendance is required. No one will call if you miss class. It is important for students to adhere to College's Attendance Policy.
- You are required to request that your official Cabrillo College transcript be sent to your current school as needed. This is not an automatic process.
- The student is responsible for purchasing any books or supplies that are required for each course.

Parent or Guardian Information:

- Concurrent students are treated like every other college student. The rules regarding student records are governed by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Academic information is only released with the written consent of the student.
- Please note: Your child will be exposed to a diverse population in educational programs designed for the adult learner, which may involve sensitive topics that might be considered controversial or offensive to some. Your signature on the K-12 Minor Student Statement of Understanding form acknowledges your receipt of this information and stipulates your permission for your child to enroll in a college level course and participate in all required activities that may include field trips off campus.
- All courses taken will be taken for college credit and become a part of the official college record. Poor grades can affect their academic future in such areas as admission to colleges/universities, eligibility for financial aid, eligibility for athletics, and academic probation.
- Parents are not allowed to be present in the classroom unless they are registered for that class.
- Instructors are not responsible to inform parents when classes are canceled at the last minute or when the class ends prior to the appointed time.

Rights of Access:

Under Section 49061 of the Education Code, parents of community college students do not have a right of access to their children's student records, regardless of whether the student is under the age of 18. Also, under federal law Section 1232g of Title 20 of the United States Code), there is a general right of parental access to student records, but not for college students, regardless of age. In accordance with this regulation, a student's college record (including their Cabrillo transcript) will be released to the parents only with the written consent of the minor student.

Students can request official transcripts online and/or view grades on WebAdvisor.
