Event Title: Social Justice Conference
Event Date:  April 30\(^{th}\) and May 1st
Location:  Friday evening reception at the Watsonville Center
          All day conference on Saturday at the Aptos campus

Description: Cabrillo College’s 4th Annual Social Justice Conference is scheduled for Friday, April 30th, and Saturday, May 1st. The opening reception will be held on Friday evening at the Watsonville Center, while the all-day conference will be held on Saturday at the Aptos campus. The two day conference will include guest speakers, break-out sessions, a children's fair, a community fair and a key-note address by the Honorable Cruz Reynoso, the first Chicano to serve on the California Supreme Court.

Cabrillo College students, faculty, staff and administrators will present research and creative projects concerning social justice issues, while community-based organizations will distribute information about their work toward social justice during the lunchtime community fair. We are pleased to announce that Luis Alejo, the mayor of Watsonville, will speak at the opening reception at the Watsonville campus, while Russ Jones, representing LEAP, Law Enforcement Against Prohibition, will open our Saturday program at the Aptos campus.

The "Children's Faire" will provide child-centered activities with social justice themes during both break-out sessions. All ages welcome, but a parent or legal guardian must be present. Go to socialjusticecabrillo.org for more information.

Event: Jobs for Students

Cabrillo Student Employment posts both on and off campus jobs for students on the Student Employment Web site.

Faculty who are interested in receiving job posting notices for student jobs related to Cabrillo Occupational Programs should email Lyn Hood in Student Employment (lyhood@cabrillo.edu). Please indicate in your email which occupational area you are interested in.

Emails contain the job description, location, requirements, hours and pay. Students must be registered with the Student Employment web site to access the employer information.

If you are currently receiving these notices and wish to be removed from these lists, please indicate that as well.

Not all listings are sent to faculty. If you know of a student who is seeking employment, please refer them to our office or website.
