After a tightly contested beginning the Cabrillo College Seahawks demolished the West Valley College Vikings 59-35 Saturday night at Benny Pierce Field in Saratoga.

Quarterbacks Lucas Romanski and Brandon Lane shared time once again.

They both went seven of 10, but Romanski threw for 176 yards and four scores, compared to Lane's 101 yards and only one score.

Seahawks (3-6, 2-2) running back Najii Wilcox racked up a season-high 183 yards and two touchdowns.

His first touchdown was a 2-yarder, and he took off for 63 yards on his second scoring run.

That run put the Seahawks up 59-28 early in the fourth.

West Valley hung around with the Seahawks, and trailed by seven points when Ryan Jones found Dre Hill for a 34-yard touchdown pass with 11:33 left in the first half.

But Cabrillo put its collective foot down and stepped on the Vikings throat.

They scored 24 straight points including a 15-yard pass from Lane to Jon Jon Moore, a Ben Knudson 20-yard field goal, a 24-yard connection from Romanski to Kyle Haskett and Wilcox 2-yard plunge.

The Seahawks coasted from that point forth.

Moore led all Seahawk receivers with 98 yards and two touchdowns on just three grabs.

Dominic Bonner also hauled in three catches and two scores but for 53 yards.

Nikko Walker and Jorge Villanueva both had a sack.

Kyle Dunn forced a fumble.

Cabrillo will try to finish its season with a win over Gavilan Saturday at 7 p.m. at Carl Connelly Field.
