

Cabrillo Building Descriptions

1100 Gym: (Weight room, swimming pool, tracks, tennis courts, Seahawks football stadium)

900 Student Center: (Health Center, Cafeteria, Fireside Lounge, EOPS office, Honors Transfer Program, and CTE Teacher's Pipeline)

800 Downstairs: Student Employment (job referrals, career research materials, career tests)
Fast Track to Work (1-2 year certificates, one-stop place with counselors)
Foreign Languages: Spanish, French, German, Russian, Chinese, Japanese
Disabled Student Program & Services
Upstairs: Speech & Communications classrooms, Physics Lab

700 Physical Science Building: Science, Engineering, Math and Astronomy
(MESA center on one end, Planetarium on the other)

600 Biology, Chemistry and Health Occupations:
(Anatomy labs on one end, new small-scale chemistry labs in center, Dental Hygiene and Nursing on the other end)

Student Activity Center (SAC) West:

Assessment
Outreach and Recruitment
Puente
Instructional Development
Matriculation

SAC East: Student Affairs Office
Student Activities
Student Senate
VP Student Services
Dean of Student Services
Bookstore (downstairs)

1000 Robert E. Swenson Learning Resources Center (named after Cabrillo's first president)

Upstairs: Reading Center
Learning Skills Program
Language Lab
Math Lab
Tutorial Center
Writing Center
Quiet Study Area
Electronic Library Classroom
Downstairs: Library and group study rooms
Below, in front: Art Gallery

100 Enrollment Services Center: Admissions & Records, College Bank, Counseling offices, Transfer/Career Center, Financial Aid Office.

500 Classrooms and Learn Communities Office, Rm. 501

200 Theater: Previous music, drama, and theater classes and costume shop, all have moved to our New Visual and Performing Arts Complex on lower campus

300 Business English and Language Arts Department Office and classrooms

Visual Performing Complex (1000, 2000, 3000, 4000, 5000): art, music, and theater classrooms, theaters, etc.

1800 Sesnon House: Donated by the Sesnon family, now Culinary Arts facility/student run Pino Alto restaurant

1600 Administration of Criminal Justice and Fire Protection Technology Program Office

1400 Computer Tech Center: IBM and Macintosh computers for student use, (include adaptive technology for disabled students)

1500 Early Childhood Education Center: with the only observation area in Santa Cruz.