The president or designee is authorized to establish prerequisites, corequisites, and advisories/recommended preparation for courses in the curriculum. All such prerequisites, corequisites, and advisories shall be established in accordance with the standards set out in Title 5. Any prerequisites, corequisites or advisories shall be necessary and appropriate for achieving the purpose for which they are established. If faculty and the Curriculum Committee determine their need, established prerequisites and corequisites must be enforced. Procedures shall include a way in which a prerequisite or corequisite may be challenged by a student on grounds permitted by law. Prerequisites, corequisites, and advisories shall be identified in District publications available to students.

Legal References: Title 5 Sections 55000 and 55003

Adopted: April 4, 1988
Revised: June 10, 2013