

We believe in your abilities. Your minds. Your creativity. Your BRILLIANCE.

We honor your histories, languages, cultures, places of origins, sexualities, and gender.

We acknowledge that some of you may be feeling fear, anxiety, and uncertainty.

We know your academic achievement depends on your physical and emotional wellbeing.

We know we grow stronger from respecting our differences and from standing in alliance with each other.

If you are an immigrant, in the ILC we honor your journey to Cabrillo College.

If you are undocumented, in the ILC there are no walls, no borders.

If you are black or brown, in the ILC your life matters.

If you are a woman, in the ILC there is no objectification, harassment, or threat of violence.

If you are LGBTQ, in the ILC there is no shame, no hostility, and you can be you.

If you are Muslim, in the ILC you will not be stereotyped or threat assessed.

*If you have children, in the ILC they are welcome.
Ask us for toys, books, coloring sheets, and a quiet room.*

*If you are a veteran, in the ILC we honor your service.
We are so grateful you are here.*

In the ILC, we care about you. And worry about you. We believe in you.

COME ON IN. LET'S GET TO WORK.
