SOCIAL JUSTICE CONFERENCE
CALL FOR PAPERS AND PRESENTATIONS

IMAGINING CHANGE/SHAPING THE FUTURE III

SATURDAY, MAY 2, 2009 ♦ APTOS CAMPUS
OPENING RECEPTION FRIDAY, MAY 1, 2009 ♦ WATSONVILLE CENTER

PROPOSALS ACCEPTED ON-LINE

<http://www.cabrillo.edu/~anajarro/socialjustice.html>

Social justice is a movement working toward a more just, humane society in which all individuals and groups experience fair treatment and have equitable access to the benefits of society.

We invite Cabrillo College students, faculty, staff, and administrators to present research and creative projects concerning social justice issues at the conference, and we also invite clubs and community-based organizations to distribute information about their organizations at the community fair.

Apply on-line at <http://www.cabrillo.edu/~anajarro/socialjustice.html>

The event will be defined by those who participate; raise your voice and be heard!

What issues would you like to see addressed?

Would you like to present a paper?

Facilitate a discussion?

Display Art?

Organize a workshop?

Perform music or present a play?

Represent your club or community organization?

Apply on-line at <http://www.cabrillo.edu/~anajarro/socialjustice.html>
