Cabrillo College Announces ‘Cash 4 College Saturday’ February 26
Community Wide Event Gives Students and Parents Help Completing FAFSA

APTOS, CA — Cabrillo College today announces its first annual ‘Cash 4 College Saturday,’ a community wide event for all students and their parents to come to Cabrillo’s campus and receive help from Cabrillo College and UCSC staff members and Financial Aid counselors in completing the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). ‘Cash 4 College Saturday’ will take place on Saturday, February 26, 2011 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. in Cabrillo’s Student Activity Center Building (SAC), Room 202, Aptos Campus, 6500 Soquel Drive, Aptos.

‘Cash 4 College Saturday’ is open to all parents, students, and prospective students, regardless of where they plan to attend college. Anyone planning to complete the FAFSA form to determine if they qualify for Federal financial aid is encouraged to attend to receive help in completing the FAFSA form.

Approximately 40 trained Cabrillo and UCSC staff members and financial aid counselors will be on hand. Assistance will be provided in both English and Spanish.

“Statistics indicate that only 50% of students are receiving the financial aid they qualify for – many are leaving money on the table,” said Dennis Bailey-Fougner, Vice President of Student Services at Cabrillo College. “The only way to find out if you qualify for financial aid is to complete the FAFSA. ‘Cash 4 College Saturday’ is designed to demystify that process, and to help students and parents get the FAFSA completed as quickly and easily as possible, so they can receive the aid they need.”

No appointments are necessary; attendees will be assisted on a first-come-first-served basis. Students should bring the following items:

- Student’s Social Security Card & Driver’s License/State ID
- Parent’s Social Security Number & birth date (for students under 24)
- Student’s & Parent’s 2010 Federal Tax Returns & W2s (If 2010 taxes are not completed yet, income estimates will suffice)
- Student’s & Parent’s 2010 bank & investment statements
- Records of untaxed income such as child support, housing allowance, workers comp or disability
- Student’s Alien Registration Number (if you are not a citizen)
- Student’s & Parent’s FAFSA Personal Identification Number (PIN), (if you already have one)

The ‘Cash 4 College’ event on February 26 is particularly timely, as March 2 is the FAFSA form submission deadline to determine eligibility for Cal Grants and for financial aid programs at several universities.
For more information, students and parents are encouraged to contact the Cabrillo College Financial Aid & Scholarships Office at financial.aid@cabrillo.edu or 831-479-6415.
