CULINARY ARTS AND HOSPITALITY MANAGEMENT

Culinary Arts, Hospitality Management A.S. Degree

Program Description
Cabrillo College's Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management program offers prospective students a unique opportunity to gain hands-on practical experience in classes that operate a public restaurant called Pino Alto as well as a full-service wedding venue at the historic Sesnon House on campus. Culinary Arts majors receive training in food safety, management principles, baking techniques, and catering operations.

In addition to the hands-on core classes, students can further broaden their culinary education by taking elective classes in specific areas where they have interest. The program offers baking and pastry classes such as chocolate, cake decorating, and wedding cake design in addition to the basic and advanced baking classes. Students can pursue their interests in wine and the wine industry in classes focused on wines of global wine regions, wine production, and wine service. Student can further hone their culinary skills with in-depth culinary classes on subjects such as sauces, preservation, presentation, ethnic foods, and nutritional cooking. For students who would like to connect cooking and healthy living, the program offers classes in nutrition and nutritional health and wellness. Cabrillo's Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management Department offers a diverse and well-rounded set of educational paths that provides students with a range of options to fit their educational and career goals.

The Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management Department offers an Associates of Science Degree and a variety of certificates that allows students to meet their educational goals. Certificates are available that help students build their resume and skills as they work toward their ultimate goal, whether that be in their current work area, or a new career path. An Associates of Science Degree in Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management will help to qualify graduates for management level jobs in the future. Many of Cabrillo College's Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management classes transfer to other California university level schools should your path require a Bachelor or higher-level degrees.

Learn more about what Cabrillo College has to offer in the field of Culinary Arts by checking out the classes offered and more about Pino Alto and Sesnon House by visiting the culinary website at https://www.cabrillo.edu/academics/cahm/
Department of Labor Data:
Total Restaurant Employees: 13 million—one of the largest private-sector employers. The restaurant industry employs an estimated 13 million people, or 9% of the U.S. workforce. The restaurant industry is expected to add 1.8 million jobs over the next decade, with employment reaching 14.8 million by 2019. One-quarter of eating and drinking place firms are owned by women, 15% by Asians, 8% by Hispanics, and 4% by African-Americans. Because we offer many other areas of study at Cabrillo, you can combine majors to reach your individual career goal. For example, you could combine photography and culinary arts and become a food stylist. Study chemistry along with culinary arts and go into food science. If you like to write, combine English or journalism with culinary arts and become a travel and food writer. If you dream of opening your own restaurant, bakery, or catering company, you can study business along with culinary arts.

Career Opportunities
Any dish that a trained culinarian creates can be a work of art in both taste and visual appeal. As a business, though, a graduate from Culinary Arts and Hospitality Management means employability. The California Restaurant Association (www.calrest.org) indicates that:
- California eating-and-drinking place sales are projected to rise
- In a recent survey, California’s new restaurants exceed 6,000; more than any other state in the nation for the same surveying period
- In recent years consumers spent more of the money at restaurants than they did at the supermarket
- The typical restaurant owner started the career ladder working as a dishwasher, busser, or cook. In fact, more than 9 out of 10 salaried restaurant employees started out as hourly employees
- The restaurant industry is the largest employer in California, providing over 950,000 jobs. The restaurant industry provides work for almost 7% of those employed in California.

Learning Outcomes
1. Demonstrate knowledge of fundamental cooking theory, food sanitation, menu design, management supervision, and food costing.
2. Produce consistent quality restaurant lunch and dinner dishes, banquet meals, and bakery products in a timely fashion.
3. Productively work as a team member.

Dance A.A. Degree
The Dance Program offers beginning and intermediate movement courses with a focus on dance as a Performing Art, and Dance Studies, emphasizing dance as an academic discipline that values the movement philosophies of many cultures. In addition to studying movement techniques, students learn about dance's social functions in other areas, including education, health, cultural studies, art, history, and the science of human movement. In addition to studying movement techniques, students learn about dance's social functions in other areas, including education, health, cultural studies, art, history, and the science of human movement. Dance at Cabrillo is dedicated to fostering development of the "whole" dancer, nurturing the mind, body, and spirit together. Bachelor’s and graduate degrees in dance and related fields provide multiple career opportunities in the public and private sectors. Many four-year colleges and universities offer emphases in areas such as dance performance, modern dance, ballet, choreography, musical theater, dance education, dance therapy, somatics, dance ethnology, dance history, and criticism. Specialties are also offered in arts administration, physical therapy for dancers, dance for children, seniors, and special education. The full course of study includes pre-professional training in dance techniques, performance, choreography, dances of the world, and somatic education.

Dance activity courses may be used to meet general education Area E, Lifelong Understanding and Self-Development for Cabrillo's non-transferable Associate degrees, when combined with other non-activity Area E units from the CG or ECE departments.

Learning Outcomes
1. Perform dances in a variety of cultural contexts including stage, community spaces and media. (Performing)
2. Build strength and resilience by dancing, using feedback and self-assessment to improve technical skill, movement efficiency, and artistic ability. (Connecting)
3. Understand and implement collaboration in dance-making practices by leading groups and engaging creatively to problem-solve issues tied to arts and social activism. (Creating)
4. Appreciate cultural difference and value the diversity of dance practices that have been used to address social issues. (Responding)

Model Program for Dance
An Associate Degree requires 60 units appropriate to your educational goal, to include general education and at least 18 units in a major. Courses should be selected to meet the lower-division major preparation requirements at your intended transfer university - these specific course requirements can be found at www.assist.org for 4-year public institutions in California. Please see a counselor for advisement to ensure you are taking the best possible courses given your goal.
