A day for peace and freedom

Growing the next generation

The Gardeners’ Club of Santa Cruz County and the Central Coast recently handed out scholarships to some deserving local students.

Laura Palmer and Rachel Golden, who both study horticulture at Cabrillo College, each received the $300 scholarships on April 9. Club President Cherry Thompson, Scholarship Chair Bill Patterson, Cabrillo horticulture teachers Kathy Navarez, Peter Shaw and Andrew Wall were all on hand to celebrate the recognition.

Here’s to a blooming future to them both.
